

Magna Grecia

weekly cruise

A journey into the ancient soul of the Mediterranean, where myth and history blend amidst stone columns and an endless sea. Magna Graecia as the cradle of civilization, a crossroads of peoples, a laboratory of thought, art, and harmony. An itinerary through Doric temples and sunken cities, among theaters that still echo with eternal words and sanctuaries dedicated to the gods of light and the sea. Magna Graecia as a living chronicle of a dialogue between East and West, between the sacred and the everyday.

Porto Grande

START

Welcome aboard

The day takes shape in the Porto Grande of Syracuse, with boarding in an elegant and private setting. Here begins an experience designed for those who love the sea as a place of discovery, comfort, and absolute freedom.

Ortigia

DAY 1

Between history and arches

Once you have settled onto your yacht in the port of Syracuse and stocked your galley, the adventure begins. Spend the afternoon strolling through the enchanting streets of Ortigia, the ancient Greek heart of the island and the city.

Discover charming squares, historic architecture, and hidden corners, before enjoying a delicious Sicilian dinner and experiencing the vibrant nightlife among the lively alleys of Ortigia.

Plemmirio

DAY 2

Marine Protected Area

Set sail for the crystal-clear waters of the Plemmirio Marine Protected Area, a true paradise for snorkeling enthusiasts. Indulge in a refreshing swim at Arenella beach, before continuing toward the pristine shores of Fontane Bianche.

Drop anchor for the evening at Kukua Beach and relax as the sun sets over the Ionian Sea: the perfect setting for an aperitif on deck, cradled by the waves.

Vendicari

DAY 3

Nature Oasis

Sail along the stunning coastline to the Vendicari Nature Oasis. Dive into the turquoise waters of Calamosche Bay for a swim or a snorkeling session in this pristine paradise. Continue exploring the quiet surroundings before dropping anchor near Marzamemi, a picturesque seaside village. Enjoy an evening stroll through its ancient streets and savor local flavors in a traditional trattoria, letting yourself be embraced by the authentic Sicilian atmosphere.

Capo Passero

DAY 4

Island of Currents

Lunch on board in a private cove, surrounded by deep blue. A convivial and refined moment, where the pleasure of fine cuisine meets the magic of the sea, creating a complete and unforgettable sensory experience.
